

KING BABY

KING BABY

KING BABY is a 140-foot (42.7m) chic, sexy luxury yacht influenced by rock 'n' roll and the jewelry line King Baby.

Both the exterior and interior were designed by the renowned Evan K. Marshall, who used the aesthetic themes to create a lusciously contemporary luxury yacht. This tri-deck yacht is both tall and beamy with a 4 fin "At Rest" stabilizer system making KING BABY extremely stable at anchor and underway. Her exterior spaces are expansive and well suited for entertaining and socializing. The main deck aft has a covered dining area; as does the upper deck, with a variety of seating spaces. This area is air conditioned as well. Forward on the upper deck is built-in seating and sunpads. The sundeck has a Jacuzzi with a three-tier cascading waterfall and swim-up bar, a variety of seating areas, three TVs and a large onyx bar.

The sexy rock 'n' roll-inspired interior is unlike that on any other yacht. From Keith Richards' doors to custom coffee tables to vintage hood ornaments, guitars used as art and other impressive decorative pieces, there is so much to behold. The alluring indoor spaces are comfortable, with an edge of modern seduction. The owners spent months curating classic rock photography, which is showcased throughout the yacht. The ideal charter yacht for groups of friends ready to let the good times roll, this yacht has both sass and style.

KING BABY has 5 luxurious staterooms. The main deck is home to the large full-beam master with a steamy his-and-hers en-suite bathroom with both a bathtub and shower. Three large king staterooms below deck all have en-suite bathrooms. There is also a spacious twin cabin below deck.

KING BABY is both inviting and provoking. Thanks to her stellar onboard atmosphere, you may walk on the yacht, but you'll strut when you leave... always wanting more.
