"After sailing every ocean I have learned, nothing can compare to the raw beauty of the South Pacific"

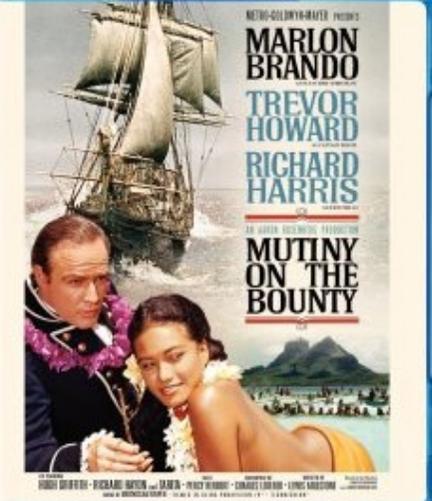

- Allan Jouning, Captain

Easter Island

Discover the “Lost God’s of Easter Island”, a place where both history and mystery run deep.

Mutiny on the Bounty!

Pitcairn and her islands are legendary for the mutiny of 1790 which saw the abandonment and burning of the HMS Bounty. The crew forever remained on this idyllic piece of paradise situated quite literally in the middle of no where.

Meet the direct descendants of the mutineers of the HMS Bounty.

Proudly named the smallest democracy in the world with just 50 inhabitants.

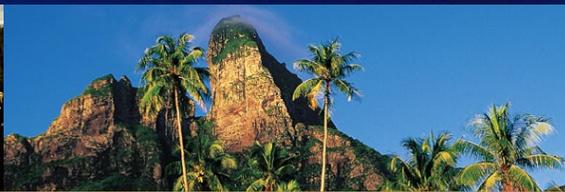

Pitcairn Island

The Gambier Islands...

“The Islands at the End of the World”

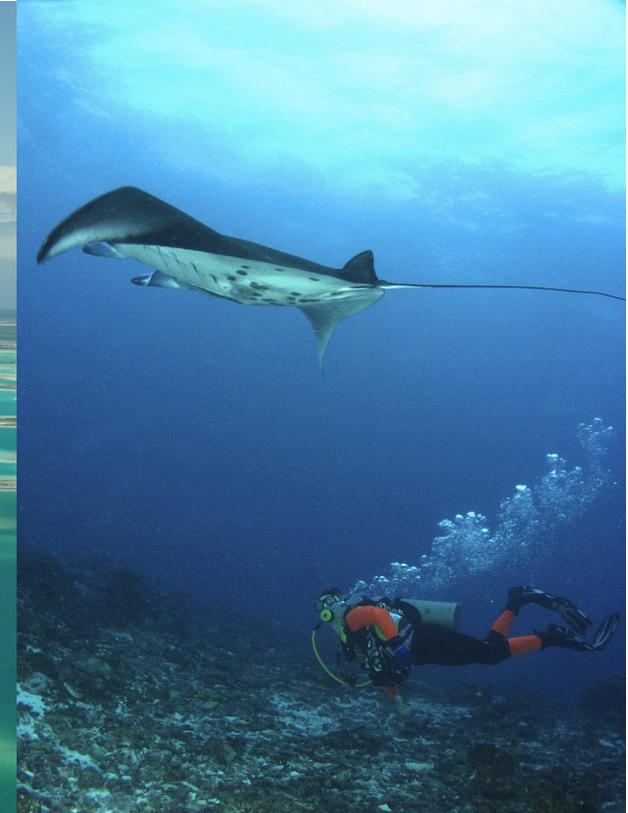

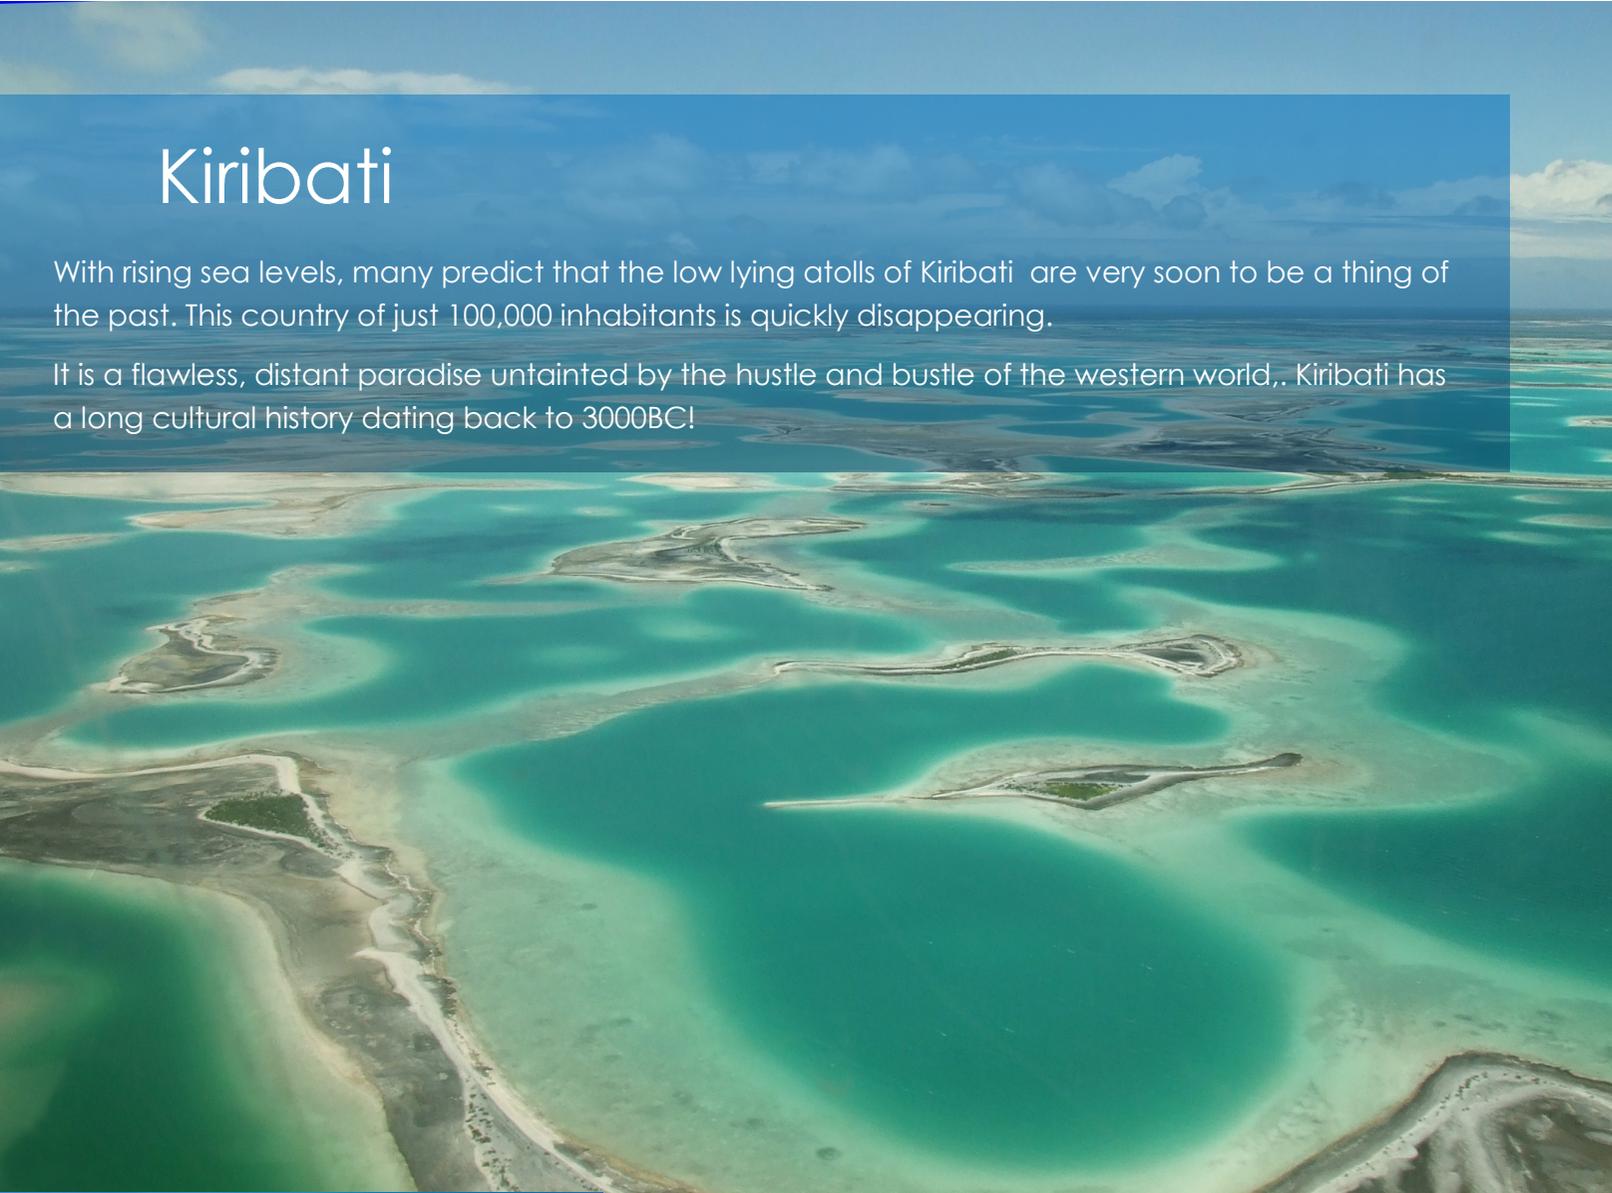

The Gambier islands, located over 1000 miles south east of Tahiti are renowned for their remote beauty. Immerse yourself in culture and simply magnificent surrounds both above and under the water.

Kiribati

With rising sea levels, many predict that the low lying atolls of Kiribati are very soon to be a thing of the past. This country of just 100,000 inhabitants is quickly disappearing.

It is a flawless, distant paradise untainted by the hustle and bustle of the western world,. Kiribati has a long cultural history dating back to 3000BC!
